

Craig Lickley

Vice President, Relationship Manager

Craig joined Agri-Access in the late fall of 2007. His primary focus is managing client relationships, origination of loans, and field servicing in the states of Oregon and Washington. Craig started his lending career with a small community bank and has spent numerous years as an Agriculture Mortgage Broker.

Craig received his Bachelors of Science degree from the University of Idaho. He also studied abroad in Southern France, and attended the Western Ag Banking School at Washington State University.
